Risks and rules

The risks

Off-road riding has risks, including:

- Rollovers and being thrown from the vehicle, which can cause serious injury or death
- Collisions with trees, rocks, fences, animals and other vehicles
- Steep, rutted, muddy or rocky trails and water crossings
- Dust, mud and branches hitting your face and eyes
- Burns from engines and exhaust
- Remote trails where help takes longer to arrive

I understand these risks, and others no one can foresee, and that some remain even when the staff and other guests take care. I choose to take part.

Initials _____

Trail rules

- Helmet and eye protection on, fastened, the whole ride.
- Follow the guide in single file and keep the spacing they set.
- No passengers on an ATV built for one rider.
- Seat belts and doors or nets closed in UTVs.
- Hands and feet inside the vehicle.
- Ride at a speed you can control, and stop when the guide signals.

I'll follow these rules and every instruction from the staff. The staff may stop me or ask me to leave if I don't.

Initials _____

If I drive

If I drive, I hold a valid driver's license and I'll drive within my ability and the guide's instructions.

Initials

Rental equipment

I'll return the equipment on time and in the condition I got it. I'm responsible for loss or damage from misuse.

My answers

My answers are true. I'm not impaired by alcohol or drugs, and I'll tell the staff if anything about my health changes before or during my visit.

Release

To the extent the law allows, I release the business, its owners and its staff from claims for injury, illness or damage that come from the inherent risks of this activity. This release doesn't cover anything the law doesn't let me give up.

Initials

Emergency care

If I'm hurt or become ill, the staff may give first aid and call emergency services. I'm responsible for the cost of any care I receive.
