Risks and rules

The risks

Karting has risks, including:

- Collisions with other karts, barriers and walls
- Neck and back strain from bumps, spins and sudden stops
- Hair, scarves, hoodie strings or loose clothing caught in moving parts, which can cause serious injury
- Burns from engines, exhaust or brakes
- A kart tipping or leaving the track
- Bruises and jolts from the track and the kart itself

I understand these risks, and others no one can foresee, and that some remain even when the staff and other guests take care. I choose to take part.

Initials

Track rules

- Tie long hair back and tuck in scarves, strings and loose clothing.
- Helmet on and fastened before the kart moves.
- Hands and feet inside the kart, hands on the wheel.
- No bumping or blocking on purpose.
- Red flag means slow down and stop where the marshal shows you.
- If you spin out, stay in the kart, raise a hand and wait for the staff.

I'll follow these rules and every instruction from the staff. The staff may stop me or ask me to leave if I don't.

What you agree to

My answers

My answers are true. I'm not impaired by alcohol or drugs, and I'll tell the staff if anything about my health changes before or during my visit.

Initials _____

Release

To the extent the law allows, I release the business, its owners and its staff from claims for injury, illness or damage that come from the inherent risks of this activity. This release doesn't cover anything the law doesn't let me give up.

Initials _____

Emergency care

If I'm hurt or become ill, the staff may give first aid and call emergency services. I'm responsible for the cost of any care I receive.

Initials _____

Photos and video

This waiver covers your visits for one year from the day you sign. The business may ask you to sign again sooner if its rules or this form change.

the studio uses your health answers only to do your appointment safely and to keep the records the law requires. They are never used for marketing or sold. They are stored encrypted, and every time someone at the studio opens them it is logged.
