Risks and rules

The risks

Skating has risks, including:

- Falls, especially onto wrists, elbows, tailbones and heads
- Collisions with other skaters and the rink walls
- Being run over or cut by another skater's wheels or blades
- Rental skates that fit badly or come loose
- Wet spots, debris or worn patches on the floor

I understand these risks, and others no one can foresee, and that some remain even when the staff and other guests take care. I choose to take part.

Floor rules

- Skate in the direction posted and at a speed you can control.
- No racing, tag, chains or carrying someone on the floor.
- Leave the floor to fix a skate or take a break.
- No food, drinks or gum on the skating floor.
- Follow the floor guards and the special-skate calls.

I'll follow these rules and every instruction from the staff. The staff may stop me or ask me to leave if I don't.

What you agree to

My answers

My answers are true. I'm not impaired by alcohol or drugs, and I'll tell the staff if anything about my health changes before or during my visit.

Initials

Release

To the extent the law allows, I release the business, its owners and its staff from claims for injury, illness or damage that come from the inherent risks of this activity. This release doesn't cover anything the law doesn't let me give up.

Initials

Emergency care

If I'm hurt or become ill, the staff may give first aid and call emergency services. I'm responsible for the cost of any care I receive.
